

Living Well with Dementia Conference

Person Centred Approaches

This conference will be of interest to all healthcare professionals working with older people in Residential & Acute settings

Topics

- Person Centred Practice
- Communication & Eating Difficulties
- Elevator Project - Education & Empowerment
- Palliative Care Needs
- Changing Minds
- Decision Making Capacity Bill 2015
- Expressing Sexuality
- Early Onset Dementia

PLUS

A Choice of two Masterclasses Friday, 24th April 10.00am to 13.00pm - Northridge House - St Luke's Home

Option 1

Prof. Jan Dewing - Creative approaches to responding to behaviours of distress and unmet needs for persons with dementia.

OR

Option 2

Dr. Nicola Cornally - Advance Care Directives and End of Life Care planning.

These can be booked in conjunction with the conference or independently

Thursday April 23rd 2015,
Radisson Blu Hotel,
Little Island, Cork

Key Note Speaker

Professor Jan Dewing

Time travel and Dementia

Other speakers include

Professor Cillian Twomey, Dr. Kate Irving, Dr. Suzanne Timmons, Ms. Carol Jermyn and others

Conference Registration Fee plus Masterclass: €100

Conference Registration Fee only: €80
Masterclass only: €40

Main Sponsor

Contact Details

Ms. Claire Coakley, Northridge House, St Luke's Home, Mahon, Cork.

T: 021 4536551 E: claire.coakley@stlukeshome.ie

Pre booking is necessary, for on-line booking please go to www.stlukeshome.ie/listcourse/dementia-conference

Limited places available, book early to avoid disappointment

An Bord Altranais (Category 1) accreditation pending

www.stlukeshome.ie/education-centre find us on Facebook